Northern Lights, Winter Adventure Tour

Detailed Itinerary:

Day 1. Arrival, greeting and relaxation after the flight.

Arrive to Anchorage and meet your local guide at the airport to be taken to your comfortable hotel downtown Anchorage. Spend the night in Anchorage. D

Day 2. Anchorage's most popular highlights, skiing at the Alyeska ski resort, and Wildlife Conservation Center.

Board your coach and explore Anchorage with such highlights as Alaska Native Heritage Center where you will discover the rich native history and culture of Alaska, Lake Hood airport (the largest float plane airport in the world!), Alaska Wild-berry Products (with a chocolate fountain), and downtown Anchorage. Then head out to the Alyeska Ski Resort located in a small community town Girdwood. There is fun and adventure for everyone here – skiing near sea level with extraordinary ocean views from the slopes and lifts or for those who don't ski: sliding at the tube park or skating on the outdoor rink at the base of the mountain. Visit the Wildlife Conservation Center where you will see Alaska's animals. Overnight in Anchorage. B,L,D

Day 3. Anchorage to Talkeetna.

Board your motorcoach and transfer to the cute little town Talkeetna. On the way visit the Iditarod Dog Sled Race Headquarters to learn about the great race that takes place in March and travels from Wasilla to Nome. Overnight Talkeetna. B,L,D

Day 4. Dog Sled learning and practice adventure. Transfer to Fairbanks.

Drive your own dog team with guided supervision! The Lead Dog tour provides an excellent opportunity to learn about the Iditarod Race and Mushing Basics combined with the exhilaration of a sleddog ride and driving a team. The ride alone will be one and a half hour adventure on our beautiful winter trails. The Iditarod presentation is inspiring and educational. The Mushing 101 course focuses on the equipment, sleds harnessing, commands and what to expect from our sled dogs. After the tour transfer to Fairbanks. Overnight Fairbanks. B,L,D
